

Before you search the world
for a rare chemical,
call us—we already have.

We know how important a rare chemical is to the success of your project, but you can't afford the time to look for it. For that matter, you may find it, but it may not meet your quality specs, then you're back to square one. At Pfaltz & Bauer, we've been searching the globe for over 100 years. If its not in our warehouse, we know where on earth to look for it.
